

We're Thankful for YOU!

It's that time of year when we gather with family, friends and even strangers to show gratitude and thanks for so many things in our lives.

Studies show that one of the aspects that makes the holiday season extra joyful, is the increase of people expressing gratitude.

Take a look at what we are grateful for below, and then take a minute to think about what you're grateful for this holiday season and share it with your family, friends, and coworkers.

We're thankful for:

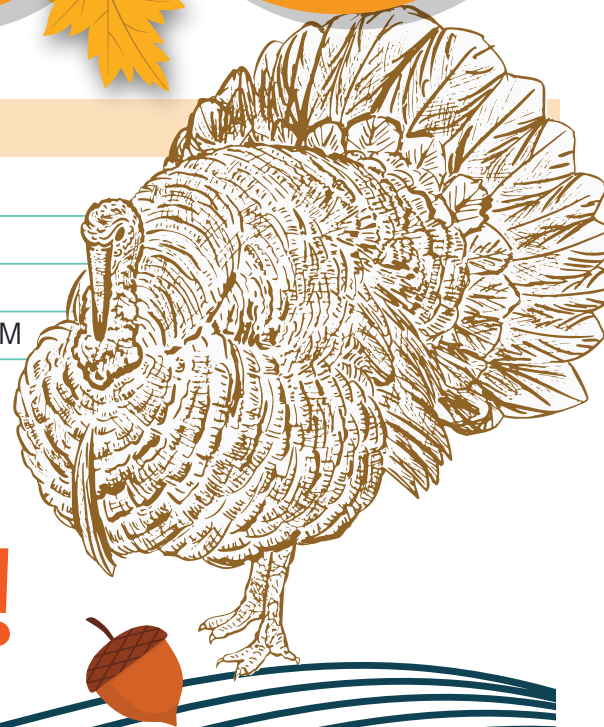

The hard work, dedication and professionalism shown by all of you

The respect and civility you show one another in the workplace

99 percent participation in the recent employee survey

An opportunity to celebrate our successes and have some fun with our GM

Happy Thanksgiving!
